Entire West Half of Big Plant Razed
to the Ground When Boiler Let Go

Rescuers Quickly Driven Back by Fierce Flames
Which Destroyed $150,000 Worth of Property.

Many Pinned Beneath Beams and Machinery Roasted to Death—Over 300 People at Work in Shoe Plant
When Disaster Occurred—Witnesses Describe the Awful Scene.

Brocton, Mass., March 20.—(Bulletin) Estimates of the dead in the ruins are varied from 50 to 75. The fire was under control at 10:30 today. At noon raking over the ruins commenced. Eighteen bodies have been so far taken out. All the bodies recovered are burned past recognition. The known dead are, Albin Dahlborg, Mrs. Elijah H. Kelly, Lineus Swanson.

Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon 31 bodies have been taken out of the ruins. Brockton, Mass., March 20.—At 7:50 o'clock this morning the boiler exploded at the shoe factory of R. B. Grover & Company. The entire west half of the factory was razed to the ground, being blown toward Calmar and Denton streets. In the wreckage were from 200 to 300 of the 400 people at work in the factory. Fire broke out immediately and a few minutes after the explosion the ruins were a mass of flames and smoke. The front of the factory which was left standing by the explosion immediately caught fire, driving out the rescuers from that part and making haste essential for their escape. An hour after the catastrophe the large four story factory was a blazing ruin with fallen walls and the Dahlborg block, corner of Calmar and Main streets, the Old Tavern building next to it on Main street and seven houses on Denton street, and in that vicinity were blazing.

The cries and shrieks of those pinned in the fallen ruins and held down by the beams and timbers were heart-rending. Such a scene and such horror was never known in Brockton before. The shrieks could be heard resounding nearly a half mile distant. Then the flames and smoke enveloped the victims of the explosion and the cries were hushed. The factory had been cut in two by the explosion, near its centre, and the four story part that settled to the ground was the west part of the factory on Calmar street, and that part running along Denton street, at the rear. The walls of this part of the factory were crushed like an eggshell and the entire structure careened away toward the streets and fell to the ground on the Denton street side and to the second floor on Calmar street. On the fourth floor was the stitching room and beneath were the finishing room, the sole leather room and the gang room. Those in the lower floors are thought to have suffered most loss. Many of the girls and women in the upper floor were gotten out, and through windows and beneath broken beams they made their way out.

Others were caught by the falling timber and could not get out. Many of these were seen by the rescuers who were unable to do a thing, and had to abandon the idea of their escape. George W. Avery, a decorator, was on Main street, opposite the factory when the shock of the explosion came. Thus he tells of it:

"When the explosion came the whole building except the front part was blown outward and settled to the ground. I rushed to help others get the people out. We got out ten or twelve people. Then the flames and smoke poured out all over the building and drove us back, blinding us and making it impossible to do more. The heat was terrific. I pulled one woman out who was all cut up. It was horrible. We did all we could.

"Smoke drove us away. We could do no more. The shrieks and the cries I shall never forget them."

John W. Towhig, a plumber, and William Mannix, who works in the factory, got a ladder and attempted to rescue the unfortunates. The ladder reached to the second floor of the wrecked building and they dragged girls and women out and carried them down the ladder.

John Clifford, who works in the front part of the gang room in that part of the factory which did not collapse, was one of the rescuers and got his boy and another man out before he was driven to seek safety for himself.

"The factory seemed to split in two," he said, "and the whole rear part went down in ruins. I was in the front part which did not collapse. I rushed forward to get the people out and the first I saw was my boy Thomas, who works in the stitching room. He got out all right and then I helped out a man who works in the sole leather room. Then the flames came and I had a close call getting out of the ruins and to safety."

"The boiler was used for the first time Saturday night or rather early Sunday morning," said J. W. Newhall this morning. Newhall has been night watchman at the factory this winter. His work includes firing the boiler every morning so that the factory will be heated and everything ready for work at 7 o'clock.

"It had been lying idle all winter. Sunday morning I fired it. The boiler so far I know, was in perfect condition. I was on duty Sunday night. This morning I started the boiler as usual. Everything worked nicely. The factory was warm and the power was running smoothly when I left at 7:20. I was relieved by Engineer Rockwell. I was on my way home when I heard of the tragedy. It is all a mystery to me, for the boiler was apparently as sound as a bell and there was water in it when I left the factory."

The rescuers say many whom they saw in the collapsed factory were pinned beneath beams or among the machinery and were unable to get out. Others whom willing hands tried to remove from the danger could not be removed because of some beam that held them, and then the flames came and the rescuers were driven off while the cries of the people were silenced in death. There are also many who made their way out of the wreck. One man said there were a large number of girls from the stitching room got out or were able to crawl out of the wreckage. Another saw men crawling through the window frames to safety. Said one of the girls from the stitching room, who came down in the wrecked portion as she stifled her sobs: "I was in the stitching room on the top floor. All at once came the explosion. Then we fell. The whole factory came down. The floor on which we were sank from under us and then I crawled out onto the ground."

"It was horrible," said City Marshal W. A. Boyden, one of the first to arrive after the fire alarm was sounded. "We did all we could to rescue the people, but there were many that we could not get to. They were pinned down and could not get out. I saw the wife of John Landers, a mechanic. Her body was cut in two there in the ruins. We could do nothing. One man we dragged from the ruins wrenching his leg and tearing his clothing from him in the effort. Then the flames seemed to shoot from the midst of the ruins and towered many feet above and a moment later we were driven away and could do nothing more."

GRAND JURY

Begins Investigation of the Beef Trust at Chicago
on Monday.

Chicago, March 20.—Fifteen grand jurors were accepted today to investigate the alleged beef trust in the federal court. Judge Humphrey advised the prosecuting attorneys that the safer practice would be to accept men to whom no objection could be offered and only men between the ages of 21 and 65 years were accepted. The men who qualified are: Christopher Bernhardt, Albert P. Buckley, Joseph Dawson, Jerry George, Jr., John F. Hahn, Arthur Hay, Richard Hicks, A. J. Hoffman, Charles H. Ingraham, John McGeough, John Murray, C. A. Nadelhoffer, Walter Plumb, Henry Stockers, and R. B. Willard.

The veniremen were instructed to use extreme care to keep the proceedings secret. Questions asked the veniremen were searching and indicated a disposition to carefully avoid anything which could be construed as an error. The men were interrogated as to their employment, business associates, ownership of stock in railroads or other corporations and acquaintanceship with anyone connected with the meat packers or their employees. Assistant Attorney General Pagin declares the investigation will be most rigid. He believes there is sufficient evidence already in the possession of the federal authorities to indict the principal members of the alleged trust. The firms are: Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Libby, McNeal & Libby, Nelson Morris & Co., Cudahy Packing Co., Schwabach & Sulzberger. Assistant District Attorney Charles B. Morrison is directing the investigation.

HELD A GUN

Behind His Back to do Some "Fancy Shooting" and Killed His Playmate.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 20.—While nine boys, ranging from 12 to 13 years of age, were playing at Wild West sports in Germantown Sunday, Warren Parr, 15 years old, was shot dead. James Hawthorne, aged 18, Hawthorne and another boy, Walter Snell, have disappeared. The remaining six boys were locked up in the Germantown police station.

Hawthorne was the leader of a crowd of Germantown boys and set out to take them to a cave in a place known as McMaster's pasture. On the way the boys met young Parr, who was going to church, and persuaded him to join them. At the cave Hawthorne, who had a rifle, showed his companions some fancy shooting. Once he held the gun behind him and fired at a mark. The bullet passed through the heart of young Parr.

George Hawthorne, father of the young fugitive, says he is convinced that his son will commit suicide.

RESCUERS DIE

Fourteen Caught Exploring
Wrecked Mine

ONE CARRIED "NAKED" LIGHT

Twenty-Four Dead are Result of Two Explosions in West Virginia Collieries.

Charleston, W. Va., March 20.—Twenty-four men are dead as the result of two explosions in the Rush Run and Red Ash mines at Fire Creek, this state. Ten of the victims were members of a rescuing party and were caught in the second explosion in the Rush Run mine.

Eight miners were at work in the Rush Run mine and five in the Red Ash mine when the first explosion occurred. Five or six hours later a party of 11 rescuers entered Rush Run mine to locate the dead. They had probably gone back 2,000 feet when the second explosion occurred, and it is positively known that all are dead, as there is no possible chance for their escape.

After the first explosion miners from neighboring mines rushed to the ill-fated mine in an effort to save their comrades. On account of gas it was considered unsafe to enter the mine. Eight old and experienced miners with safety lamps have been engaged to enter and close up some of the entries so that fresh air can be forced into the mine. The rescuers had gone about 2,000 feet into the mine when the second explosion occurred, or less than half the distance to where the miners had been working when the first explosion occurred. Hundreds of people visited both mines from other mines, but aside from the wrecked power houses and the crowds of spectators the mines presented their usual appearance.

The men explored the mines for two or three hours, putting up brattices so that pure air should follow them wherever they went. Finally some of them came out and reported that the others were too careless in going forward faster than the good air was being supplied, carrying at the same time a "naked" light. Soon the awful explosion occurred, caused by the gas coming in contact with the "naked" flame of a miner's lamp, and 14 more souls were launched into eternity. This explosion was not so forcible as the former, but more awful in its effects, and was followed by a shorter, thinner tongue of flame, followed by a silence so deadly that it seemed physically painful.

The dead in the Rush Run mine: Andrew Weir, white, married; Charles Jones, Sr., white, married; Will Coon, white, single; Clayton Mosley, colored, single; Perry Wood, colored, single; Holly J. Worsil, white, single; Thomas Allen, colored, single, and Clarence Allen, colored, single. The Red Ash mine dead: Clarence Jackson colored, single; Steve Nugi, Italian, married and three unknown foreigners. The dead in the rescue party from the second explosion in the Rush Run mine: Thomas Bannister, white, the fire boss; Charles Gwyn, white, single; James Gwyn, white, single; D. C. Hutchison, white, married, the machine boss; his two sons, J. P. and Norman, both single; J. E. Phillips, white, married, coke boss at the Ethio mines; E. W. Huson, white, married; Henderson Mosley, white, married; Renat Washington, colored, single, and one unknown.

ADAMS HOME

Accorded an Enthusiastic Demonstration by His Fellow Townsmen at Pueblo.

Pueblo, Colo., March 20.—Former Governor Alva Adams was welcomed home by one of the largest and most enthusiastic popular demonstrations ever accorded to a man in this city's history. After a brief address the governor, accompanied by his wife, entered their carriage, which had been almost filled with flowers by their admirers, and the carriage, drawn by about 100 enthusiastic citizens, headed by a brass band, proceeded to the governor's home. The route through the streets was a continuous ovation, and when he reached home there was a crowd of intimate friends and neighbors to welcome him. To this gathering he made a short speech of thanks for their welcome.

A TABLE

Thrown at the Retreating Burglar as He Fled From the Plucky Maid Servant.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 20.—Margaret Hammer, a plucky maid servant at the home of W. W. Richardson, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania, routed a burglar in a hand to hand conflict Sunday. In her effort to land him she threw a small table at him as he vanished.

Miss Hemmersly sleeps in a rear upstairs room and was awakened by the rattling of some paper. She got out of bed and started for the matchbox, but the burglar saw her and grabbed her by the throat. He then placed his hand over the plucky woman's mouth so that she could not scream. The domestic grappled him and accidentally kicked over a small jardiniere stand. The noise frightened the intruder and he started to make his escape down the stairway. It was then that Miss Hammersly bombarded him.

The police were summoned, but the man had escaped.

Gas at Cleveland—One
Now Dead.

Cleveland, O., March 20.—An entire family may be wiped out by natural gas. This morning at the home of James Daley, neighbors found the mother and six children almost dead from asphyxiation. Anna, a babe, died soon after the rescuers broke into the home and Margaret, aged 14, is lying at a hospital. The mother and other children are in a critical condition at the hospitals. When the neighbors discovered the family, the father was locked up at Central police station on an intoxication charge. He was later released.

Hammond, Ind., March 20.—Erie railroad train No. 7, known as the Pacific express, while running at the rate of 60 miles an hour near Winfield station plunged down a 20-foot embankment, injuring 12 people, two of whom may die. The wreck was caused by the auxiliary reservoirs under the engine cab dropping into a switch frog, which caught the front trucks of the tender. The engine remained on the track, but six cars toppled over and rolled down the embankment. Engineer Walnitz and Fireman Gorman remained at their posts and escaped injury. Among the injured are: Frederick Peavey, brakeman, Huntington, Ind.; head badly hurt and leg bruised; William T. Drake, conductor, Chicago, face cut by glass, nose broken, back sprained; Mrs. H. A young boy was caught by the falling balloon and badly bruised. Middlekirk had nearly every bone in his body broken, while Odell had none broken.

MOVEMENT IS STARTED TO END FAR EAST WAR

Powers Considering Proposal to Convene International Congress to Stop the War.

POPE ALSO SEEKS TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Official Tokyo Bulletin Tells of Russian Reverse—Japanese Army at the Heels of the Retreating Russians—Now 20 Miles Above Tie Pass.

Birmingham, Eng., March 20.—The Post is today informed by high diplomats that two or three great powers including Great Britain, are considering a project to convene an international congress to end the Russo-Japanese contest and to revise the rules of warfare. The necessity for many reforms is recognized, among them the questions relating to prisoners of war and the expense of their maintenance.

Delivers Ordered Post-It. St. Petersburg, March 8.—It is today reported that Russia has given instructions to German and other continental war contractors postponing the delivery of large quantities of stores for the present.

Pope Pius Seeks Peace. Liverpool, March 20.—The Post says today it has learned on authority of a prominent member of the Vatican that the Pope is seeking to influence European diplomacy in favor of mediation of the present war in the far East. He has communicated directly with certain rulers including the Kaiser and King Edward and has also sent a friendly letter to the dignitaries of the Greek church expressing the hope that peace will be declared.

Russians Repulsed. London, March 20.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese ambassador, today made public the following statement received from Tokyo:

Our detachment, March 19, occupied Kaiyuan, 20 miles north of Tie Lang. The enemy afterwards was repulsed. The enemy attacked, but was repulsed. The enemy burned the bridges on the main road south of Kaiyuan, and also destroyed part of the railway bridge. A number of Russian guns were found buried near Mukden.

PURSuing ENEMY

Japanese Army at Heels of Retreating Russians—They are Now Twenty Miles Above Tie Pass.

Tokyo, March 20.—Headquarters of the Japanese armies in the field report: "Our detachment, continuing its advance north, pursued the enemy to Kaiyuan (some 20 miles north of Tie pass). Kaiyuan was evacuated by the enemy Saturday after he had set fire to the railroad station."

St. Petersburg, March 20.—Commander-in-Chief Linovitch in a telegram says: "On March 17 Japanese batteries bombarded our divisions in the valleys of Tavanpun and Yampu. The enemy appeared near Kaotaitse (on the railroad, 22 miles north of Tie pass), and their cavalry has occupied Fakoman. Our armies continue their concentration."

While Emperor Nicholas still firmly declines to abandon the prosecution of the war, and the government maintains its ability to continue the conflict, it is known that powerful influences including several of the emperor's own ministers, are now strongly urging that the time has come to indicate to Japan Russia's desire for peace upon a reasonable basis. Should Japan then attempt to impose too onerous conditions, the influences argue that in view of the universal wish to see the bloody conflict ended, Russia's position will be strengthened abroad by the abolition of sympathy from Japan and the situation at home improved when the nation is made to understand the emperor's pacific proposals have been met with impossible terms. One of the ministers stated: "As the victor on land and sea, Japan can afford to remember that two countries which must live through the long future as neighbors may need each other's friendship. Japan may consider the time propitious on account of the situation in European Russia to try and crush us. Suppose, for the sake of argument, she succeeded in finally forcing a humiliating peace, it could not be more than an armed truce. Russia is too big and powerful to retire permanently from the field. The clouds at home will eventually roll away. With the army and navy reorganized in five, ten or fifteen years there will come inevitably our revenge. No permanent peace is possible now or later, unless Japan is reasonable."

A correspondent wires from the front that according to information the Japanese strength in Mukden is 80 battalions less than that of the Russians. The Japanese also were inferior in guns at many places. The number of men at the beginning of the battle was 700,000, manning the greatest field works ever constructed. Not only in duration and the number of troops and guns engaged did the battle exceed all former contests, but also in expenditure of ammunition, the accumulated stores of which were so enormous that after a continuous artillery fire of 40 days both sides were still able to continue. Describing the retreat the dispatch pictures debris strewn along the road, marching soldiers increasing their loads by spearing bread, vegetables or fruit on their bayonets, at the same time discarding heavy boots, Chinese garments, knapsacks and blankets. The correspondent then continues: "After the initial excitement at Tava, where a few wagons plunged without reason over impossible gulches, the entire body arrived at the steep banks of the Pu river, where heavy artillery is crowding every available space and all superfluous stock, and even now there is nothing better to accommodate the army."

To Resist Mobilization. Warsaw, March 20.—Now that most of the strikes are ended, the workmen are beginning to carry out the threat of revenge on such of their fellows as refused to quit work with them. On Saturday a foreman who had refused to join the strikers was fatally stabbed, and Sunday a workman who had refused to walk out was shot and severely wounded. The authorities fear that these incidents are only the beginning of a series of such outrages. The working classes are greatly excited in anticipation of orders for mobilization. The men are determined to offer violent opposition.

Light Attacks by Japs. Gunshu Pass (about 155 miles north of Mukden), March 20.—The first army, which has been covering the retreat of the Russian forces from the south, is withdrawing slowly, checking comparatively light attacks by the Japanese. The Japanese are conducting a flank operation on the right, and from the Russian column Japanese batteries are visible keeping pace a short distance away.

Kuropatkin's Assignment. St. Petersburg, March 20.—It is stated on high authority that at General Linovitch's request the emperor has appointed General Kuropatkin commander of the First army, and that he has assumed command.

Estates Sacked by Peasants. St. Petersburg, March 20.—The peasant disorders are growing rapidly in the black soil belt and other districts of southern Russia. Provincial journals bring alarming reports, showing that an actual reign of terror already exists in some districts. Not only are estates plundered and buildings burned, but landlords are brutally murdered. In some places bands of armed men have taken to the forests and actual battles have occurred between them and estate guardians. Millions of copies of two documents called "The Golden Scroll" and "Division of Lands" have been circulated. Both tell the peasant that the emperor has decreed a division of land.

City of Mexico, March 20.—Meat dealers are exercised over the rise in the price of meat, which has been advanced from 25 to 50 per cent in the past month, and charge that there is a meat trust at work. The situation is serious, as meat is almost beyond the means of the lower and middle classes.

Pope's Name Day.

Rome, March 20.—Pope Pius X received thousands of congratulations in person and by message on his name day, and celebrated mass in the presence of a few intimate friends. His holiness lunched with his sister and later received the sacred college in his library and thanked the cardinals for their good wishes, without, however, delivering a formal address, as was the custom of Pope Leo XIII, who chose such occasions for addressing the world through the cardinals.

Vandalism in Mt. Vernon.

Mt. Vernon, March 20.—One of the most outrageous pieces of vandalism ever perpetrated in Mt. Vernon occurred some time Saturday night when the two beautiful columns at the Farmers and Merchants National bank were cut and gouged with a knife. The damage was not discovered until Sunday. The column on the left side of the entrance bears four deep cuts, all of which penetrated the mahogany veneering. The other column has a number of gouged places all of which are deep enough to ruin the piece. As yet there is no clue.

army continues its northern retreat, the Japanese following. They have occupied Fakoman, to the northwest of Tie pass. Friday evening the Russian cavalry camped three miles south of Kalyuen. The same day the Venezuelan troops took possession of the mines, by armed force, as in the similar case of the New York and Bermudez company, this notwithstanding the protest of the Italian manager. This action has been taken without a judgment of the court of Caracas. The Italian legation has been notified and Baron Aliotti, Italian charge d'affaires, is represented as having entered a protest.

JAPS ARE BARRED

Efforts to Establish a Colony in Texas Have Been Defeated by This Decision.

New Orleans, La., March 20.—The efforts to establish a Japanese colony in Texas have been defeated on the decision of V. C. Van Dusen of the immigration bureau that the naturalization papers recently issued to the Japanese farmers who settled near Houston are null and void, as Japanese cannot become citizens of the United States. The clerk of the court of Harris county, who issued the papers, has been notified not to issue any more. The Japanese settled to operate the farms, but the decision will interfere with them, as the Texas laws do not allow persons to own land in that state who are not American citizens, or intend to become such.

Do You Need

No other tonic in the world is like Paine's Celery Compound; no other remedy takes so simple and scientific a way to perform its wonders. Paine's Celery Compound acts directly upon the nerves, feeding them Nature's nerve food—celery—filling them with new vitality. Through the nerves it acts upon the blood, purifying it, strengthening it, making it pure and strong and red and healthy. No other remedy purifies so gently and so quickly.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one known prescription that purifies without purging or weakening the system in any way.

If you feel "run down," "used up," nervous, tired,—in other words, if you need bracing up, try Paine's Celery Compound.

Learn the full luxury and delight of being always at your best, able to live your life for all that is in it.

Feel the exultant thrill of pure, rich blood and abundant Nerve Force, made by Paine's Celery Compound.

Paine's Celery Compound gives real Nerve Force, instead of the false activity imparted by mere stimulants. It is the best and quickest nerve tonic.

Tired, weak-nerved, thin-blooded, unhappy men and women get quick, sure, hearty health from this celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic. It drives away lassitude, gives courage and strength. It makes a rich increase in blood supply, and makes the whole system thrill with hearty health.

Miss Mary Stone, Secretary of the Young People's Christian Temperance Society of Milwaukee, tells her experience after feeling "run down" for months.

We have used Paine's Celery Compound in our family for a number of years and a few months ago when I felt so worn out and run down that I thought I would have to give up my work and take a vacation earlier, mother suggested that I try a couple of bottles of Celery Compound. A few doses made me feel quite different, my appetite increased, I began to sleep well at night and felt rested in the morning. In a very short time I felt like a different being and am glad to say that your medicine made it possible for me to continue my work uninterrupted. Yours very truly, Miss Mary Stone, 2621 Lisbon Ave., Milwaukee, Wis. Secretary Young People's Christian Temperance Society.

Try Paine's Celery Compound YOURSELF when you feel exhausted—when you grow tired sooner than you should—when you lose patience with the irritating cares of daily life—when you feel that your hopes and ambitions are not as high as they used to be—when you spend a sleepless night—when you get up almost as weary as when you went to bed—when you are worried—when the tired feeling puts its heavy touch upon you.

That is when you need the new Nerve Force, the good blood and fresh vitality that is given by PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Don't wait. Try Paine's Celery Compound today.

Take just one dose when you go to face the hard part of the day's trials. See how much better you feel.

See how much more easily the trials roll away. Two days' treatment with Paine's Celery Compound will give proof of its marvelous powers.

For 18 years this famous prescription has been the most universally used tonic in the world. It has stood the test of time. Physicians constantly use and prescribe it. No prescription has ever been formulated that equaled it in curative power.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, and all reputable Druggists sell and recommend it.

Law to Protect Quail. Farmers' institutes in a number of counties in Ohio at meetings held this winter, have passed resolutions demanding the enactment of a law for the protection of quail. Some favor an enactment that will prohibit the killing of quail for five years, while others demand that the protection of Bob White be made perpetual. The farmers are awakening to the fact that the birds are his best friends in fields and orchards.

ORDINANCE

Regulating the Peddlers is Being Rigorously Enforced by Mayor Crilly. Street Fakirs are Few.

About a year ago the City Council passed an ordinance prohibiting peddlers and street fakirs from doing business in Newark within the limits bounded by Church street on the north, First street on the east, Canal street on the south and Fourth street on the west, and prescribing a license of from $5 per week to $5 a day outside of these limits. Since the passage of the ordinance the city has been almost free of these troublesome personages, and despite the fact that weather conditions give evidence that spring is about here, the oily tongued fakir, who usually blows in with the first balmy breeze, is notable for his absence. Almost every day agents and fakirs call on Mayor Crilly to secure licenses for selling their goods, but when informed of the conditions, they invariably bid themselves to a more congenial community. Mayor Crilly says that he intends to enforce the ordinance to the letter during this spring and summer, and it is not probable that Newark people will often have the pleasure of enjoying a summer night's entertainment with the eloquent tape worm extractor, or corn doctor as of yore. The absence of these talented individuals will bring joy to the hearts of some Newark people.

MAPLE SYRUP

Season is Now in Full Blast and the Farmers Are Getting Dollar a Gallon.

The maple syrup season is in full blast and the syrup made from the "first run" that has been brought to Newark is unusually good. In some of the lower grades of the public schools the children have been taught how maple syrup is made and have been instructed to write essays on the subject. That the syrup industry has made an impression upon their youthful minds is evidenced by the holes seen in maple trees all over the city. The season opened about three weeks ago and will not last much longer. The price received by the syrup makers is $1.00 per gallon. Speaking of the price a well known farmer said: "One dollar is cheap, considering the amount of labor that it required to make the syrup. First the buckets and spiles must be gotten ready. They are usually hauled to the camp on a sled. They are distributed to the trees, two to four buckets to the tree, according to the size of the tree. Then an auger or a brace and bit is used to put the hole into the tree, while some use a more improved spile which is driven into the tree, saving the boring of holes. The sap begins to run at once, unless it is near zero weather so that it freezes before it can get out. When it is thawing weather it runs so fast that it has to be gathered two or three times a day. The old fashioned pans in which it used to be boiled are not used very much any more. Small camps resort occasionally to an old fashioned tin or copper evaporator for boiling the sap. The evaporator of course cleans the sap of all dust and dirt that usually accumulates when it is boiled. Then, the syrup is almost clear when it is sufficiently boiled and is ready for the market. When it is dark reddish brown you may depend upon it that it is not made in an evaporator, but it may be good and pure just the same." There are many good sized sugar camps in Licking county.

The export of lambs in a frozen condition is now one of the most promising industries of the State of Victoria. For two years past exporters have been clamoring for lambs, not only for London, but for Africa, the Philippine Islands, the East and Mediterranean ports. The prices offered have tempted farmers within easy reach of railways to breed lambs especially for export.

BADLY HURT

IS ALEXANDER CLAYTER BY AN EXPLOSION OF POWDER.

While Playing With a Shell the Powder Went Off and Burned His Face Seriously. Alexander, the 14 years old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clayter of 108 West Locust street, was seriously injured on Sunday. While playing in one of the neighbor's back yard with some children, he began handling a shell and after extracting the shot and wad, lighted a match and stuck it into the shell, supposedly to see if anything remained within. The fire coming in contact with the powder which was still in the shell, caused an explosion, and the powder was blown into his face and eyes, causing severe pain. Dr. W. C. Rank was the attending physician.

IMPROVEMENTS AT BUCKEYE LAKE

TWO NEW HOTELS ARE NOW BEING BUILT JUST WEST OF THE PARK.

New Launches Will be Seen This Season—Boat Line to Avondale—Cars Running Hourly.

Hourly service between Hebron and Buckeye Lake was resumed on the traction line Sunday morning, each car between 7:30 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. connecting with cars for Newark and Columbus. Many took advantage of the first opportunity to visit Buckeye Lake during the day. The ice in the lake had just broken and had been whipped to pieces by the waves. Now that the stumps have all been cut, the water looks like a real lake. Buckeye Lake park just now is a busy place as Manager Will D. Harris has a force of men working to put the park in trim for the spring opening. A road way is being made just south of the row of cottages on the north side of the park and the bath house is being moved to the artificial lake which within a few days will be drained so that all stumps and rubbish may be removed. Then many carloads of sand, brought from Lake Erie, will be dumped into the lake so as to provide a suitable place for bathing. Other improvements that are to be made have already been announced in this paper, including the erection of a 50-room hotel which may be started this spring.

John Glass, who formerly operated a hotel at Lakeside, has bought the Holtsberg property adjoining the Buckeye Lake Park on the west, and is now building a 30-room hotel. The framework is now up. A short distance to the north from this point, O. Woodard is erecting a 17-room hotel, which is well under way. Mr. Edward Grandstaff is building a cottage and will follow it by constructing others this spring. It is announced that a Millersport firm will operate a grocery boat on the lake this spring for the purpose of supplying the hotels and cottage people with groceries and fresh meat. A passenger boat line is to be operated this season between Buckeye Lake Park and Avondale. Mr. George Norris who has been in charge of the company's property this winter says that the ice houses were all filled with 9-inch ice. Ice 14 inches in thickness could have been harvested later in the season but the 9-inch product is of more convenient size. A locomotive is now stationed at Hebron to be used in hauling gravel from Hibernia to the Park and to points all along the Buckeye Lake traction line. Ducks are now in and the sportsmen are arriving at the Park. Mr. Henry Sayre of this city is just completing a neat little cottage and boat house between Buckeye Lake Park and Rosebrough's. Almost opposite Mr. Sayre's cottage on the south side of the lake is the Haynes Brothers cottage. Several new launches will be seen on the lake this season.

FOR RENT. The store room in the Doty House block, occupied by Taylor's Pharmacy. Will rent as it is or will extend back 200 feet to alley. Can make one of the best rooms in the city. Enquire of W. D. Fulton. 3-204f

A report by the Prussian Minister of Railways states that the interests of the capital invested in railroads in Germany has increased from 4.9 to 7.3 per cent since 1890. The report also says that the highest speed attained with new locomotives in 1904 was 82 miles an hour, but that this speed could not be kept up for any length of time. The Minister further recommends that the speed on State lines should not exceed 68 miles an hour.

HARRY RADCLIFFE CLIMBS LADDER

NEWARK BOY PRESIDENT OF THE TERRY ENGRAVING CO. OF COLUMBUS.

Few Years Ago He Began Business With a Little Cigar Stand in the Capital City.

Harry P. Radcliffe, who formerly lived in Newark with his mother, has just purchased the controlling interest in the Terry Engraving company at Columbus. This young man has made rapid strides in the business world. A few years ago when he left Newark and located in the Capital city, he had nothing, but by hard work he accumulated a little cash and opened a cigar stand on High street, Columbus. The space occupied by his entire stock of goods was about three feet square, but he made it pay. The young man's popularity and close attention to business won. He handled good goods and treated his customers as if he appreciated their patronage. For years he managed this business, and he made it a point to save a considerable part of his earnings. Not long ago a relative in the west died and left him a neat sum of money. Mr. Radcliffe has been one of the directors of the Empire Theatre company since it was established. At the meeting of the directors of the Terry Engraving company, Mr. Radcliffe was elected president and general manager. With his ability and hustle he should make the Terry company one of the greatest institutions of its kind in the country. His many Newark friends will be glad to learn of his success.

MORTGAGES.

A lot of you readers have mortgages on your homes. Seems like it's about all you can do to pay tax interest on it. If you, a big, strong man, can't raise that mortgage, will you tell us how your widow is going to do it? Raising your children will keep her fully entertained, and if you don't provide the means of raising the mortgage, the sheriff will raise the roof from the heads of your dependent ones. This isn't sentiment—it's a brutal fact. A policy in the Equitable Life of New York will raise both the mortgage and the children, and it costs very little, too. You don't have to die to win; if you live to an old age, the cash value of the policy, which will be a large sum, may be drawn by you and used for your own support.

GAMBLING ROOMS

RAIDED BY POLICE SUNDAY AND MONDAY MORNINGS.

Men Before Mayor Crilly Monday in Police Court—Two of the Cases Continued.

Two gambling rooms were open Saturday night, and both came to woe before the dawn of Monday morning. Chief of Police James S. Sheridan and Captain Bell with a squad of officers raided the rooms operated by A. J. Harris at 1:45 Sunday morning, and captured five players beside the proprietor and his assistant, J. A. Mort, who presided at the "take off" hole. All who were able to put up the money for their appearance were released from custody after being taken to the city prison. Harris gave bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance. Mort appeared before the Mayor on Monday and was fined $10 and costs, while the players were assessed the costs in the case. Harris, it will be remembered, bought the John Moore place on the South Side and attempted to operate his slot machines after Mayor Crilly's order which put them out of business a few months ago. At half past two Monday morning a second raid was made by the same officers and Thomas Egan and W. L. Cassidy were arrested for operating the joint and again six players were found at the tables. As in the above case the players were assessed the costs and allowed to go. Egan and Cassidy were both indicted by the last grand jury and only recently settled up their cases in the Common Pleas court, Cassidy having returned to the city only a week ago. Later Egan and Cassidy appeared before Mayor Crilly and were fined $20 and costs in each case. Harris is out of the city and will not return until Tuesday.

PYTHIANS

SHOW A GOOD RECORD FOR PAST YEAR IN OHIO.

There Has Been a Big Increase in the Membership and Financial Condition is Good.

That the Pythian order of Ohio is in a flourishing condition is indicated by the annual report of William Beatty, grand keeper of records and seals. It shows five new lodges instituted, three charters restored, a gain of 2,456 members and a total membership of 71,288. At the present time an effort is being made by Grand Chancellor Clark to have 75,000 members by next June, and Mr. Beatty reports that the indications are that this will be accomplished. One remarkable feature is that of the 651 lodges in the state not one appears delinquent in any respect. An abbreviation of Mr. Beatty's financial statement shows: Total cash on hand, $90,982.15; total of funds on hand in subordinate lodges, not including investments, $298,682.14; total of receipts for the year, $906,211.41. Disbursements during the year show that $130,405.62 were paid in sick benefits; $24,912.49 in funeral benefits; care and education of orphans, $31,252.82. During the year 2,783 members were suspended and 66 expelled; withdrawn by card, 616; died, 530. The number of rejections during the year was 226; number of weeks' sickness, 57,569; number relieved, 6,730; number of widows and families relieved 373.

Business is Booming as Firm Can Sell All the Cigars and Stogies They Can Manufacture.

Mr. John H. Swisher of the firm of Swisher Brothers, cigar manufacturers is home from trip to Chillicothe and Ironton, where he was inspecting the cigar factories. The Chillicothe Advertiser says:

Col. John Swisher of Newark, Ohio, was in the city for a few hours looking after his plants here, and then went to Ironton, where he has another factory. He says his firm is still busily engaged in repairing the old carriage factory, and as soon as it is ready, an effort will be made to put girls to work there.

Mr. Swisher said: "Manager Patterson tells me there will be no trouble in getting plenty of girls to work at the West End plant, and we can use all that we can get. We want to double our capacity in this city, and hope to have as many girls in the West End as we have in the East End."

"We have nearly 300 girls at work in the East End, and hope to get as many more. Business continues to be very good and we can sell all the cigars and stogies that we can turn out."

This beautiful musical production will be followed by the much-discussed Panero play, "Letty," with William Faverham, Carlotta Nilsson and Julie Opp in the leading roles. Victor Herbert, the composer of "Babes in Toyland," has been frequently annoyed of late by an amateur musician who has called upon him at ed for the Auditorium soon, and will be repeated in all its perfection of picturesque and realistic scenic illustrations, and the strongly individualized characters will be embodied by a company of capable players. Last winter when the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra was in Toronto, Canada, a little thing happened which for a time, threatened to make trouble behind the scenes; and had it not been for a "happy thought" and some quick work, the large audience which had assembled in the Music Hall, might have had a tedious wait for the concert to begin. It was a very cold night, the pavements were covered with ice, and when the musicians were compelled to leave the hospitable warmth of the hotel to go to the concert, they made the trip in double quick time. IN THE FIELD OF SPORT VERY CLOSE SCORE

But the Coshocton Team Was Winner.
Newark Blames Defeat to Small Floor and Bad Lights.

The basketball five from the local High school returned home late Saturday night, with long faces and dejected spirits after losing a close game
with Coshocton High under unfavorable circumstances. The score when the game was called stood 23 to 22 in favor of Coshocton.

Newark blames her defeat to the small floor, bad lights and the unsportsmanlike conduct of their opponents. According to reports from that game Referee Bentley Pope of Coshocton, showed great partiality in his decisions.

Pine, of Newark was easily the star of the local team, making 20 out of the 22 points. Newark was handicapped by the absence of two regulars, Kibler and Hart, the former being still unable to take his place on the team on account of his injuries received at Granville.

Swigart played a fast game for Coshocton and scored many of their points. A return game will be played here in April. The line up:
Coshocton—Rogers and Denman,
forwards; Swigart, center; Williams
and Deeds, guards.

Newark—Bell and Pine, forwards;
Prior, center; Moore and McFarland, guards.
Field goals—Pine 6, Bell 1, Swigart
5, Denman 2, Rodgers 2, Fouts, Pine
3, Denman 4. Referee and umpire, Pope and Speer, alternating. Timekeepers, Baker and Kibler. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

nasium on Thursday evening, March

COLUMBUS VS. NEWARK.
Columbus, O., March 20.—On next
Thursday the last game that North High will play this season will be played at Newark, when they go up against the crack High school team of that place. Although North did not have a successful season they promise to have a "sweet" team next year as all the old players will be back and a better place to practice will be found.
Principal C. D. Everett and the teachers are aiding the association in every way they possibly can.

NEWARK REPRESENTATIVE.
Physical Director George M. Pinneo
of the Y. M. C. A., will depart Wednesday for Marion, O., where he will attend a state conference of the physical directors of the many associations of the state. A general discussion of work and methods of work will be included in by the delegates, and the meeting will close with a practical demonstration of these methods on the gym floor at the Marion Y. M. C. A. building.

son begins April 19, and the last game,

MARTHA WILSON FILES SUIT FOR TEN THOUSAND DAMAGES.

Judge Seward Goes to Delaware to Hold Court—Transcripts Filed.
Daily Court Budget.

Martha Wilson has commenced suit
in the Common Pleas court against the Columbus, Newark and Zanesville electric railway company for $10,000 damages. The plaintiff says that on March 15, 1905, she resided at Clay Lick, in Madison township, Licking county, O., and that on that date she boarded one of the cars owned and operated by the defendant at Clay Lick station, six miles east of Newark, for the purpose of being carried to Newark; that after boarding the cars she paid her fare to the conductor for her passage to Newark; that while the car was being run between Clay Lick and Newark she notified the conductor that she desired
to be let off the car at the crossing over the track of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway which is the crossing of Morris and East Main streets, in Newark; that when the car arrived at the crossing the same was stopped and she got up from her seat and went out of the car for the purpose of leaving the same; that while in the act of stepping over the car to the ground, the conductor, without any warning to the plaintiff, signaled the car to move, and the motorman started the car with a sudden jerk, and she was thrown from the car step to the pavement, falling upon her back. She says her nervous system has become injured, and her body became paralyzed, from which injuries
she has suffered and still suffers great and excruciating pain and nervousness,
and by reason thereof has been permanently injured and wholly disabled
from performing any manual labor.
That by reason thereof she has been damaged to the extent of $10,000, for which, with interest from the 15th of March, 1905, she asks judgment against the defendant. Flory & Flory, attorneys for the plaintiff.

number of legal votes cast at the elec-toxicating liquors, and that there were also a number of ballots cast at the

John M. Swartz et al. the defendant, Charles M. Rider, for answer, says

for $800, for which he gave his note;
that he procured a further loan from Swartz of $500 on September 23, 1901,

GEO. D. GRASSER FILES HIS ANSWER

MAKING A SENSATIONAL CHARGE AGAINST HIS WIFE WHO SEEKS A DIVORCE.

Says Mrs. Grasser Kicked Him While
He Was on His Knees at Prayer.
Wants Petition Dismissed.

In the case of Ella R. Grasser vs.
George D. Grasser, suit for divorce,
the defendant, by his attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has filed his answer. The defendant says that it is true that he was married to the plaintiff on October 6, 1884, and that no
children were born of the marriage.
The defendant says his wife has in her possession his library, a diamond ring worth $150, a college society pin worth $15, two stick pins, and a pearl,
worth $15, and one, a ruby, worth $25,
all of his wearing apparel and other articles which she refuses to surrender to him. She also has under her control and possession $600 which is on deposit in a building and loan association in Columbus, O., in her name, upon which dividends are owing and due.

The defendant says that for the past ten years the plaintiff has been almost continuously cruel in her treatment;
that in February of 1890, in Newark,
O., she kicked him near his spinal column, while he was on his knees, near his bed, saying his prayers, and so injured him that he still suffers therefrom, and believes the injury to be permanent. He therefore asks that the petition of the plaintiff be dismissed, and that she be restrained and enjoined from disposing of any of his known property, or from collecting said money from said building association or other place, where it may be deposited, and that she be ordered to release any claim thereto, and that the same be paid to the defendant, and that she further be ordered to surrender the personal property to him.

Another Divorce Suit.
Bessie McDonough, by her attorney,
Smythe & Smythe, has filed her petition in the Probate court, asking for a divorce from her husband, Joseph G.
McDonough. The parties were married July 24, 1891, and no children were born of said marriage. For cause of action plaintiff charges her husband with being a habitual drunkard and with extreme cruelty. Plaintiff says that on one occasion her husband assaulted her and threatened to kill her,
that he threw a pair of scissors at her
and afterwards attempted to shoot her with a shotgun, and that he threatened to kill her and choked her severely.
She charges him with immorality, infidelity, abandonment and failure to provide.

Judge George J. Cover of Delaware and Prosecuting Attorney L. C.
Stillwell of Mt. Vernon were in the city Saturday on business.

Clayton Boy Improving.
Alexander Clayton, the boy who was hurt by the explosion of a shotgun cartridge Sunday, is reported much better and getting along nicely.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman
of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate nurse from the Blockley Training School,
at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic
Nurse at the Philadelphia
Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education,
and what she has to say
may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes:
"I am firmly persuaded,
after eight years of experience
with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine
for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches, and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would blot after eating and frequently become nauseated. I had an acid discharge and pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb,
that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and

"want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Experience has proved this.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass.
In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is free and confidential.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

MAYOR CRILLY
AIDS GIORGETTIAFFIDAVITS SHOWED THAT HE IS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN IN GOOD STANDING.Newark Fruit Dealer No Longer Detained in the Old Country—He is Expected Home Soon.

Mayor A. J. Crilly some time ago prepared a number of affidavits in the case of Joseph Giorgetti proprietor of the well known North Third street candy and fruit store in this city, who was being detained in Florence, Italy, on the ground that he was still an Italian subject. The certificates were to the effect that Mr. Giorgetti was a legally naturalized citizen of Newark, where he stood in high esteem in the general community. Since the sending of these certificates as to the standing of Mr. Giorgetti much speculation has been indulged in as to the ultimate outcome.

On Sunday Mrs. Louisa Giorgetti, mother of Mr. Joseph Giorgetti, received an Italian paper which contained an article in regard to the matter. The article states that Mayor Crilly's certificates were received by the Italian authorities, and after examination Mr. Giorgetti was at once released from further detention, and he will be submitted to no further molestation. Mr. Giorgetti is now expected home in a short time, when he will receive a warm greeting from his many friends.

It will be remembered that Mr. Giorgetti left home without his naturalization papers and when an effort was made to obtain a duplicate at Wilmington, Del., it developed that the court house years ago had burned and the records were lost.

NEW SAND-LIME COMPANY

Being Organized by Jos. M. Ickes and D. H. Pigg to Develop Property East of Newark—Bricks Stand the Test—Investigation Being Made by Committee.

The Sand-Lime company, recently projected by Messrs. D. H. Pigg and J. M. Ickes, of this city, has already taken the preliminary steps looking to active operations. Messrs. James W. Rutledge and J. P. Lamb are now in the east where they will inspect a number of sand-lime industries in a number of cities. They expect to be gone about a week and during that time will inform themselves thoroughly regarding the sand-lime industry. Immediately on their return home they will make a report of their investigation, which, if satisfactory, will result in the new company beginning operations at once.

Messrs. Ickes and Pigg have an option on the Taylor tract of land lying east of Newark near Stadden's bridge. The land is rich in silica sand, the sand lying from 70 to 80 per cent of silica. Recently a package of this sand was taken to Chicago where it was made into bricks. The day after the bricks were made one of them showed a crushing strength of 47,000 pounds and a few days later another of the bricks was taken to Columbus by Mr. Ickes where it showed a strength of 100,000 pounds without the slightest indication of crumbling. Stock has been subscribed and upon the return of Messrs. Lamb and Rutledge the company will be organized providing their report of their investigations is satisfactory.

A VAGUE REPORT OF LENOX' INJURY

NEWARK MAN SAID TO HAVE BEEN BADLY HURT BY CARS
AT CLEVELAND.

Advocate Dispatch Says No Accident
There and No Lenox in Any of the Hospitals.

S. B. White, a saloonist on Bush street, is attempting to verify a report which reached his ears Sunday of an accident to Fred Lenox, his former bar keeper. The report states that Lenox had both legs cut off in the Big Four yards at Cleveland. Lenox worked at White's saloon until a week ago, when he left suddenly after a continuous spree for several days. He fell in with a partner who accompanied the man to Cleveland. It is said that the Lenox man was seized with an attack of tremors and it was while in this condition that the accident is said to have occurred. Mr. White wired the police at Cleveland, but could learn nothing regarding Lenox's whereabouts.

The Advocate on Monday telegraphed its Cleveland correspondent to investigate the report. The following reply was received Monday afternoon: Cleveland, O., March 20.—The Big Four officials say that no accident occurred here and the police reports agree with the railway people. Inquiry has been made today at every Cleveland hospital and no Lenox is to be found.

Second Vice Grand Master Shea of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen is quoted as saying that in all probability the railroad will give out the statement in the course of a day or two, but would not discuss the terms of the agreement.

Foreman Discharged Gang.

As a result of a Saturday night's carousal, General Foreman H. L. Needham this morning discharged a gang of twelve or fourteen Hungarian laborers, who have been employed in and around the B. & O. shops. Saturday night the "Hunkies" cashed their checks and bought an all night's supply of booze. On Monday morning the legs which had contained the liquor were stacked in a pile in the back yard of an Hungarian colony near the shops. Sixteen kids were counted in the pile, and it is said that the noise and disorder lasted until late Sunday morning. A large number of new men are being put to work today to take the place of the discharged laborers.

House Collapsed.

The north wall of the sand house at the B. & O. shops collapsed Sunday afternoon and allowed a large portion of the sand contained in the building to spread over the ground. The building is located near the round house, and is used for storing sand for the locomotives.

Making Plans in Newark.
